

TEMPORARY
PRICE ADJUSTMENT:
A MESSAGE FROM FULL-GORILLA APPAREL

Dear Valued Customer,

We're posting this to inform you of a temporary price adjustment related to changes in U.S. trade policy that are currently impacting the cost of all imported goods.

While this adjustment is modest, at 10%, we want to be transparent with you about why it is necessary and how we're applying it

This fee only affects orders placed after this update.

If you've already received a quote, your pricing will remain unchanged. We know many of our customers particularly schools and youth football & cheer organizations set their budgets early, we're committed to honoring those expectations.

Full-Gorilla was founded during the 2008 financial crisis, and we've always taken pride in making quick, responsible decisions that protect our customers and wholesale partners. Even during recent inflation, we lowered prices wherever possible. This temporary adjustment is an exception, and we're committed to removing it as soon as conditions allow.

We appreciate your continued support, and we're here if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

THE Full-Gorilla TEAM.

In athletics, "full gorilla" or "going full gorilla" refers to a player giving maximum effort or going all out to perform at the peak of their abilities, akin to the strength and intensity associated with a gorilla.
